Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 25 June 2003.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-2, 5-11, 14-21, 24-30, 33-44, 46-52 and 54-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Weder (6742316) in view of Applicant's admission in the IDS filed on October 22, 2004

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). For applications filed on or after November 29,

Art Unit: 1772

1999, this rejection might also be overcome by showing that the subject matter of the reference and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person. See MPEP § 706.02(I)(1) and § 706.02(I)(2).

Weder relates to a method of providing a decorative cover for a flower pot comprising the steps of providing at least one sheet of polymeric material, and delivering the at least one sheet to a customer for use (abstract and figures 1-7). The sheet can have bonding material on its upper surface as shown in figure-11. However, Weder fails to teach that the sheet is modified to have a matte surface finish. Applicant admits, in the IDS (Information Disclosure Statement) filed on October 22, 2004 that a decorative cover sheet for floral packaging and/or flower pot naturally has the appearance or texture of matte finish and comprises a laminate of a plastic film and another layer. The sheet being decorative would inherently teach printing or other decorating means. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to utilize Applicant's admission of using polymeric sheet material having the natural appearance or texture of matte finish in the invention of Weder with the motivation to provide for the soft feel to touch.

Further, with respect to the step of selling the sheet material, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art that the step of delivering to a customer (see abstract) would include the process of selling.

3. Claims 4, 13, 23, 32, 45 and 53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Weder in view of Applicant's admission in IDS of October 22, 2004.

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). For applications filed on or after November 29, 1999, this rejection might also be overcome by showing that the subject matter of the reference and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person. See MPEP § 706.02(I)(1) and § 706.02(I)(2).

Weder and Applicant's admission, as discussed above, fails to teach that the plurality of sheets are formed into a roll. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify Weder's stack/pad of sheets into a roll for facilitating transportation and/or storage of the plurality of sheets because such a modification is found to be functional equivalent to the stack/pad form.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-61 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims are drawn to a method of providing a decorative cover. However, the steps are directed to "selling and delivering" the sheet and not to a method of providing the cover. The steps of "selling and delivering" the sheet is directed to a method of doing business and not to the method of using the product.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 63, 12, 22 and 31 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art uncovered so far fails to teach the texture or appearance of matte finish is provided by printing with matted ink or lacquering with matted lacquer.

Information Disclosure Statement

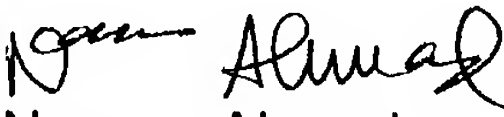

6. The Information Disclosure Statements of October 22, 2004 and June 3, 2004 have been considered by the Examiner. However, in the absence of any documents listed on a PTO-1449 form, said IDSs have been considered as Applicant's admission.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Nasser Ahmad whose telephone number is 571-272-1487. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:30 AM to 5:00 PM, and on alternate Friday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Harold Pyon can be reached on 571-272-1498. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
